Amsterdam with John Paul Thornton (3-Day post-cruise)

Your Onboard Art Historian: John Paul Thornton

John Paul Thornton is a passionate speaker who brings art history to life. Dedicated to creating internationally recognized art projects which shine light on humanity, he has received honors from the United Nations Foundation, the National Endowment for the Arts and the U.S. Congress for his work as an artist, educator and speaker. Having enjoyed decades of global adventures, he lectures extensively on painting, sculpture and architecture.

John Paul's specialized presentations on Jewish art and culture cover the art of the Holy Land, Europe's Medieval and Renaissance periods to the "Haskalah"- the great enlightenment of the Modern age.
